

LEARNING DISABILITIES AND RELATED PROGRAMS - 2012

Some of these schools do not have an L.D. Program, but have been noted for their outstanding tutoring services, caring, etc. Some of these schools do not publicize their L.D. Programs.

In fact, some here do not want to be on this list, lest counselors think of them only in this vein.

Parents should call the schools and get specifics, as programs change when key personnel move on.

Ratings based on a poll of 1040 secondary counselors across the USA.

This is also the case for sheets # 3, 4, 11, 15, 19, 20, 21, 24, 25, and 30.
